Scout Logistics promotes Jamie Klayman to Vice President

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE - April 24th, 2015 – Scout Logistics Corporation, North America's leading perishable logistics specialist, is pleased to announce the promotion of Mr. Jamie Klayman to Vice President. Jamie, an 8+ year veteran in the business, will be responsible for continuing to build sales within the North American market with specific focus on interstate loads transitioning from the Western states and Texas, to major international produce hubs throughout North America.

Previously, Mr. Klayman has served as Sales Manager - US Freight, where he led his team to record sales in 2014. Furthermore, Mr. Klayman played an integral part in Scout Logistics' recent accreditation as one of Canada's 50 Best managed Companies.

"With Jamie's promotion, Scout is looking forward to continued growth throughout the North American Market and a renewed focus on interstate freight," said Lorne Swartz, President of Scout Logistics Corporation. "He is well known and respected in the industry and his outstanding ability to manage both client and carrier needs seamlessly, only strengthens our position in this market. His promotion is well deserved and is a result of his hard work and outstanding contributions to Scout's exceptional growth."

Jamie has almost a decade of produce logistics experience managing ground shipments for some of North America's largest chains. "I am excited to take on this opportunity and increase Scout's presence in the US market", said Jamie.
