

Winter storms continue to wreak havoc from the midwest to the East Coast

Major Winter Storm hits Southern US States

To all our valued customers:

A winter storm bringing wintry weather from Kansas to Maine continues to move east on Saturday, promising more rain, snow and storms along the East Coast. Forecasts call for heavy snow and freezing rain across the Northeast and the northern Mid-Atlantic through Sunday afternoon. Continued snow, ice and freezing rain is expected for the next 24-48 hours.

Scout will endeavor to keep you posted on all developments as they are known.

Should you have any questions or concerns our dispatch is open 24 hours a day to handle your calls. To our valued carriers drive carefully and arrive safely.

The Scout Team

Toll Free 1-855-217-2688

