

Scout Logistics' First Annual "Scout Shootout Showdown"

This week marked the inaugural debut of the Scout Logistics "Shootout Showdown". With multiple venues across the GTA, and close to 100 participants the tournament brought together the ideals of camaraderie, competition and charity to raise money for some very worthy causes!

The event, which took place over a 3-day period (July 2nd through July 4th), showcased some of the most decorated fastpitch players to have graced the sport in recent years. The lineup of players included past participants from the highest levels of the sport including ISC and ISF World Champions, Maccabian Champions, Pan-Am Champions, MVP's, current and future Hall of Famers.

Over the three days period, the teams competed in a round-robin style tournament to claim their share of monies raised for their nominated charity: The Durham Bulls played for the ALS Society, the Toronto Gators played for Hockey Helps the Homeless, Scout Logistics played for the Bridle Bash Foundation and Maccabi Canada played for the Ontario Mental Health Association.

Tournament Summary

Competition

After two days of intensely played games between all four teams, it all came down to two games on Finals Saturday where the Shootout Showdown really lived up to its name. Both the Consolation round and Championship round saw each team pour their heart and soul into each play, with both games coming down to the final at bats and being decided in the 7th inning. A Hollywood script could not have matched the drama that was the final day. In the end the biggest winners were the charities that were the benefactors of each team's success.

Charity

- The ALS Society received $3,000 due to the efforts of the Durham Bulls.
- Hockey Helps the Homeless had $6,000 donated to them on behalf of the Toronto Gators.
- Maccabi Canada won $9,000 for the Ontario Mental Health Association
- The Bridle Bash Foundation received the championship prize of $12,000 dollars thanks to Scout Logistics.

Camaraderie

These charities are the true winners from the 2015 edition of the Scout Shootout Showdown. As we declare these games officially closed, we would like to thank all the players, fans, volunteers, sponsors, umpires, scorekeepers, snack bar attendants and members of the organizing committee for making this event an even greater success than we could have ever imagined.
