

Scout Logistics Teams up with The Food Dudes to Host Dinner for Canadian Veterans

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

After the success of their 2014 event, North America's leading perishable logistics specialists, Scout Logistics Corporation, teamed up with The Food Dudes, Toronto's premier catering company, on February 9th, 2016 to host a delicious dinner for the Veterans of Sunnybrook Veterans Centre in Toronto, Ontario Canada.

"This is the second year we have been involved with Sunnybrook Veterans Center. After the success of the 2014 dinner, we wanted to once again show our appreciation for the Veterans who sacrificed their lives and to whom we owe our eternal thanks" said Lorne Swartz, President of Scout Logistics Corporation. "As a company we feel very passionate about our Veterans and understand that if it wasn't for the selfless acts of these brave men and women fighting for our freedom for generations many of us wouldn't be here today. The event is both a highlight in the Veterans' Calendar and a rewarding experience for our team who are able to spend time with the veterans, hearing their stories and learning about their lives."

Catering dinner for the Veterans living at the Sunnybrook Veterans Centre is particularly special to the team at Scout Logistics because they "Wholeheartedly believe Veterans should be thanked not just on the 11th of November, but every day."

Scout Logistics has always been heavily involved with various charities and hospitals through their affiliation with the Bridle Bash Foundation. As a company Scout Logistics is defined by their caring of others – both in our devotion to our work in just in time logistics and to actively helping the community.
